

Brewster Mansion

In 1853 Frederick W. Bunnell built this grand mansion for Anson A. Brewster who was one of Hudson's early entrepreneurs. Mr. Brewster owned several Main Street buildings, in addition to the Brewster Store next to his home. This high style Gothic Revival home is the only one of its kind in the Western Reserve. The building features five fireplaces and exterior details unlike any in Hudson. To learn more visit www.HudsonHeritage.org and select Find A Property.
